What this Training Workshop is all about:

Training being offered:

- ♦ Scouting Position-Specific District Committee Members (all) (D61)

This District Committee Training Workshop will give you the tools and resources to understand your position in the BSA District Organization. It will familiarize you with the workings of your position in the District and Council and how to fulfill your goals of both you and the District. This training is the required training for all District Committee Chairs, Functional Chairs, and District Committee members both in committee and At-Large.

During the Workshop there will be a breakout portion to allow specific information, resources, and training in your area of the District Committee. It is a chance to talk with other members from your District as well as other Districts.

Breakouts during training:

- ♦ Key 3, Membership, Finance, PR and Marketing, and Program Chair
- ♦ Advancement and Recognition
- ♦ Camping and Outdoor
- ♦ Activities and Civic Service
- ♦ Training
