Introduction to outdoor Leader Skills

This training is to teach you the outdoor skills that a Boy Scout needs to achieve the rank of First Class. It also makes you comfortable teaching these skills to Boy Scouts, Team Members or Crew members so that they may participate in the BSA Outdoor Program.

Scoutmasters and Assistants as well as Varsity Coaches and Assistants must complete this training along with Scoutmaster Position-Specific Training or Varsity Vision to meet the "TRAINED" requirements for their positions.

Venturing Advisors and Associates, Troop, Team and Crew Committee Members, Interested Adults and Parents are also invited to attend this training to learn these skills.

The knowledge to teach and pass along these outdoor skills are important for all Scout Leaders.
